

New York State Partners in Policymaking®

Learn | Advocate | Lead

NYS Partners in Policymaking® is an innovative leadership training opportunity for self-advocates and parents/family members of individuals with developmental disabilities.

Join a growing national network of advocates who are dedicated to ensuring the right for equal access and opportunity for every person living with a developmental disability today and in generations to come.

Now accepting applications.
To apply to the program please visit
<http://nyspip.org/apply>